Congratulations to the extraordinary graduates of Bang College of Business!

As you stand on the brink of new beginnings, I am reminded of Mahatma Gandhi's timeless words: "We but mirror the world...If we could change ourselves, the tendencies in the world would also change... This is the divine mystery supreme... We need not wait to see what others do'.

I do applaud your unrivaled bravery and the great effort you have shown to conquer the highest peaks of knowledge as the beginning of the educational process was darkened by the COVID-19 pandemic. It was a challenge not every generation could face and you overcame it with fully deserved honors. Who dares - wins!

I do salute your passion and readiness to contribute to Society and our beloved Qazaqstan wishing you all the best as you are to do the first steps on the long and winding road of your adulthood.

Joseph Luke, J.D.

Executive Associate Dean,
School of Law

I am honored to join in the celebration of your achievements. Here at KIMEP, we have tried to impart the tools and provide the support you will need for the next phase of your life. During the extraordinary and difficult times we have been experiencing, we've all come to realize just how fragile "normality" is and that things can change very rapidly. Your ability to adapt quickly and thoughtfully to change as well as to others' views and opinions has been critical in your education. Completely new and unknown educational forms were rapidly introduced, but you managed to show the adaptability and perseverance that were necessary to successfully reach this momentous day. You have proven that uncertainties in life can be opportunities to modify your way of thinking, to be creative in your own ideas and redefine your approaches to problem management and solution. We here at KIMEP are grateful for you. Congratulations on your graduation! I wish you every success in this new chapter of your life.

Sergey Sayapin, Y.D.

School of Law

Dear colleagues, as you are graduating from the School of Law, you may be proud of yourselves. After four years of courses, internships, mentorships, projects, and exams, you are about to enter a legal profession of your choice. You will be employed in the public and private sectors, or start a business of your own. I am confident you will be successful in whatever you will do. Always be respectful towards your colleagues and clients, pay attention to details, and be honest and fair. Some of you will continue your studies at some of the world's best universities, and then come back home with new knowledge and skills, to serve your communities. I wish you the best of luck and success. May you and your families be healthy and happy!

Congratulations once again on this significant achievement; go forth and serve the world, not just as lawyers but as leaders who dare to make a difference.

Coronavirus Pandemic

Timeline of Events

On March 16, 2020, the Ministry of Health declared the spread of Coronavirus in Kazakhstan. Despite the quarantine restrictions, KIMEP has provided high-quality education to students. Online education at KIMEP University lasted for 2 years or 5 semesters (Spring 2020, Summer 2020, Fall 2020, Spring 2021, Summer 2021).

Reacting to the Virus, professors and students quickly adapted to an entirely new way of life. Faculty members have completed training courses to teach courses through online platforms. The updated version of Moodle was used by students while the whole period of distance learning. Zoom has become a venue for all classes and online meetings.

The ID 20 is the first class who entered KIMEP during the online mode of study. Despite this, the university warmly welcomed newcomers by delivering two celebratory KIMEP Times issues to their homes. Moreover, students attended an online convocation ceremony, officially becoming part of the KIMEP community. Due to «Black January» in Almaty, the first two weeks of the Spring 2022 semester were also conducted online. The remaining semester continued in offline mode.

Finally, in Fall 2022, KIMEP returned to traditional offline education. Only vaccinated students and faculty members were allowed to come to campus. At KIMEP, all conditions were created to prevent the spread of infection: the rule of wearing masks, the distance between students during lessons, sanitizers all over the campus. Dormitory students lived separately, not in pairs as it was before the Pandemic.

CONVOCATION

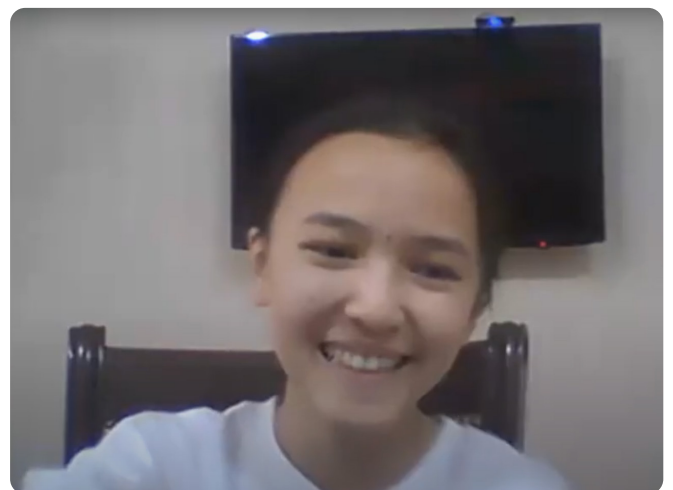

The Class of 2024's university experience began with virtual orientation sessions conducted over Zoom. Because of quarantine restrictions, their freshman year was uniquely built online, unlike any other class before them. Despite unusual circumstances, students still managed to attend a virtual convocation ceremony and officially become part of the KIMEP community.

Alikhan Nurgazinov

Bachelor of Finance

Four years - One day.

Remember four years ago when you were chasing your dreams? We were young, a little nervous, figuring out life, step by step.

Freshman year - Lonely night. Rough. Screens full of ghost faces. Wishing for real people, communications and laughs. The terrifying question "Will the entire student life go like this, online?"

Sophomore year - Inspiring morning. KIMEP buzzed with life, everyone alive with dreams. I became a part of KF's brightest events, Art Revolution's creativity, KASD's unity, KFI's friendship and KISA's rebirth. Then a semester in Glasgow, oh Glasgow, streets whispering secrets, pubs echoing dreams till dawn.

Junior year - Successful afternoon. Responsibility landed heavy. Student Government Presidency. Journey shared with my awesome dreamers. We tripped, we learned, we left our mark in quiet victories. Every challenge, a scar on our hearts, every win, a rough song sung in the shadows. Thanks to my team for this chapter (especially Inzhu, Beibarys and Kamilla), in which we tried with shining eyes to make this university a little bit better.

Senior year - Nostalgic evening. Working on a Yearbook with an incredible team (and if you are reading this with Yearbook 2024 in your hands, then we have succeeded). Now, standing on the edge of adulthood, our laughter still echoes within the walls of KIMEP. This is my story of four years in one day.

To the professors who made us think, thank you for lighting up our curiosity. To the friends who shared my sunshine and storms, thank you for being my second family. To the late nights, early mornings, losses and wins, thank you for making me who I am.

One last look, last assignment, last grade, last CoffeeTop's latte, last event and last walk around campus, but the rush of new unknown beginnings and new "days". May our stories speak courage, our bonds hold, and the spirit of KIMEP guide us.

Goodbye, Class of 2024, thanks for these...
One day and Four years!

Kamilla Pavlikova

Bachelor of Marketing

I still remember that feeling.

It feels like one chapter of life ends and another begins, but there was one thing, we didn't know what was waiting for us, due to COVID-19. It would seem that the first year was supposed to be the most intense, but we spent it in online classes in Zoom, with strangers on the screens of our laptops. And here I want to express my gratitude to my close-knit 20 ID, because, despite all the obstacles, we became friends and filled our lives with interesting stories.

Fall 2021, and now we have crossed the threshold of our university. A place, consisting of morning coffee, incredible emotions, meetings with friends from "Zoom" with whom we finally met, interesting classes, preparation for events, stress due to exams, tears, and laughter - these little moments will remain in each of us as memories of a wonderful student life. And I am grateful to you all for that!

I am so thankful for this journey, for the opportunities it has provided, and for the lessons it has taught. I am thankful for my parents, who gave me the chance to study here, in this place that has become more than just a university to me. It has been my second home, a place where I grew not just academically but also as a person.

Art Revolution. An organization that immersed me in love, sincere friendship, and real professional experience that I earned surrounded by the most talented and inspiring people. Thank you, my beloved Art Revolution, for my friends who will stay with me after graduation.

Special thanks to the Student Government of AY 2023-2024 for the unforgettable experience we all had together. For me, our cabinet became the best example of teamwork, where everyone worked for the common good of all students. 1 president, 3 vice presidents, 12 deputies, 1 year, and countless emotions and achievements. I love you!

Dear Kimepians, keep shining throughout your lives! Thank you for these four years and congratulations on our graduation, here's to the incredible journey that awaits you :)

Akylbek Mambetkaziev

Bachelor of Management

The Yearbook 2024 Committee invites all students, regardless of their specialty, to share their interesting stories about graduates. As a Bachelor's degree student in Management specializing in Human resources management at KIMEP University, I, Akylbek Mambetkaziev, share my transformational journey from Bishkek to Almaty.

My desire to get an education at KIMEP began with a missed opportunity in Bishkek while studying in high school. Intrigued by the university's reputation and scholarship offers, I faced setbacks when I failed the entrance tests in Almaty twice in 2018. Undeterred, I enrolled in my first year at a local university in Bishkek, but continued to cherish the dream of entering KIMEP.

Determined to turn the situation around, I learned that the admissions committee would visit Bishkek during my first year. Taking advantage of the opportunity, I took the saved tests again, but faced another disappointment. However, my determination remained unshakeable.

In my second year, I tried to enroll in KEPT again, and this time success was on my side. I achieved admission to KIMEP University with a full scholarship, which led to a quick transition from my previous educational institution to the university of my dreams.

Reflecting on this journey, I have no regrets about the difficulties and workarounds. Perseverance in overcoming initial setbacks and striving for excellence contributed to my success. KIMEP's transformative impact on my academic and personal growth is immeasurable, and the full scholarship has become a beacon of opportunity.

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to those who supported me during this stormy journey, my friends who encouraged perseverance, teachers who gave recommendations, and my parents who believed in my potential. As I write this chapter of my graduate history, I am grateful for the resilience that brought me to KIMEP and the community that shaped my university experience.

Anita Halnazarova

Master of International Relations

Today, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my college CSS, and my beloved university for the opportunity that was given to me, first of all for being accepted to one of the prestigious scholarships at KIMEP, and for the opportunity to expand my networking, to gain unforgettable experience that gave me a powerful boost in my academic and professional career. I am overwhelmed with emotion as I write this while in Paris because back in 2022, KIMEP started a chain of scenarios that positively impacted me. I was honored to have an internship at the UN, a UNESCO agency in Kazakhstan because my university trusted in me and it allowed me to further become a strong candidate and receive one of the highest prestigious Eiffel Scholarship (4% acceptance rate in the world) to France, where I am the only laureate from Turkmenistan.

I realized that at university I learned to look for every opportunity to achieve my goals and not to give up. I also sincerely thank the support of Zhamilya Utarbayeva, Kamila Mussina, and our Dean Gerald Pech for their warm attitude towards me and each of the students. And I recommend future students to take advantage of networking opportunities because here I found real friends and colleagues who continued to inspire me and it can be said that thanks to one of them I became a mentee in UNESCO Women@Dior in 2024-2025, opening for myself the opportunity to realize large-scale projects. And on this, my achievements continue to grow.

I will warmly keep KIMEP in my memory and sincerely thank it for changing my mindset for the better.

Nuraliym Baimuldinova

Bachelor of International Relations

When I filled out the application to KIMEP University I was 16 and did not know what I wanted from life. I was not sure what major to choose, if I am going to make friends, if everything is going to be okay.

And now, 4 years passed by leaps and bounds, I am realizing what a different and happier person I am.

KIMEP feels like home, and my journey here felt like spring. A secure place, where every student felt comfortable to broaden their horizons, where the atmosphere and the community made us flourish and bloom as if we were first flowers of the spring.

KIMEP is the place that opened numerous doors of opportunities for me. Thanks to my professors and the CSS college, who were passionate and patient to pour the knowledge in us making sure to shape great specialists. I will always remember my office hours, where I constantly got offered sweets, the best tea, portion of motivation and priceless dialogue.

Thanks a lot for KIMEP, that brought people with different backgrounds to one campus, who I now call my closest friends. All the people that I met on this journey played a big role in shaping me into the person that you can see now. Each and everyone of them has their special place in my heart. I do not regret any class that I have skipped to have lunch with you and keep in touch with each other (Sorry, professors).

The year, when I served as a member of Student Government, helped me to grow and better the university by expressing my acknowledgement of this place.

And now I am 20, realizing with tears in my eyes that the most memorable four years at the KIMEP filled with joy are coming to an end, I know exactly what I want from life, and ready to start a new chapter.

KIMEP University gave me the youth filled with a myriad of emotions, and I am showing my love and gratitude, leaving here a part of my heart and soul.

From a broken eyebrow and the first 201D meme to Mr. KIMEP: My life as a student at KIMEP has been full of colorful events, incredible experiences, and invaluable lessons. Since my freshman year, I have been involved in the hustle and bustle of student life, made loyal friends, and became a part of the university community.

My first year at KIMEP was memorable not only for exciting classes and new acquaintances but also for funny incidents that made me the first 20 ID meme. During my freshman year, I went on a quest with some friends, where I crashed into a glass door and smashed my eyebrow. This story and video of the incident quickly went viral around the university and I became known as 'the guy who smashed his eyebrow on the quest'.

In 2022, I participated in the Mr. KIMEP competition where I showcased my talents, charisma, and leadership skills as the Black Panther (Wakanda Forever). Even though I did not win first place, participating in the contest was a valuable experience that helped me get out of my comfort zone.

Active participation in student organizations. In addition to my studies, I have been involved in various student organizations such as Kimep Friends, KISA, Enactus Kimep, and KFI. In these organizations, I not only gained new skills and knowledge but also made more acquaintances and friends who share common interests and goals.

Europe Day at KIMEP. A special place in my student life is the participation in the organization of Europe Day events during the Selected Topics in International Relations course: International Conference on Organization and Management with the lecturer Adilet Kumar. We managed to invite the Ambassador of the European Union to Kazakhstan K. Jankauskas to KIMEP.

Exchange studies in Spain. In the fall of 2022, thanks to the support of the KIMEP International Office, I had the opportunity to study as an exchange student in Spain, in the city of Bilbao. This experience was a unique experience that broadened my worldview, allowed me to experience a new culture, and improved my language skills.

My student life at KIMEP has come to an end, but the memories of it will always remain in my heart.

Aigerim Bukenova

Bachelor of CHE

Reflecting on my university years, I realize they have been among the most fulfilling times of my life, despite the initial challenges. Overwhelmed by relentless deadlines, midterms, and finals at the beginning, everything changed when I won the Erasmus+ scholarship for an exchange program in Germany at the end of my first year. This experience broadened my academic horizons and introduced me to lifelong friends who turned academic challenges into enriching experiences.

Back at KIMEP in the CHE faculty, engaging courses deepened my understanding and passion. Professors like Dr. Rueckert, who waltzed around the classroom to explain German word order, and Dr. Tleuov, who hosted lively debates in the Critical Pedagogy course, were instrumental in my learning. Dr. Shahbazkia helped demystify Programming and Artificial Intelligence, while Dr. Lee's lectures on Child Language Development and Language Assessment were inspiring.

Outside the classroom, I immersed myself in student life, joining the Art Revolution as a photographer and participating in the AstroClub. These activities were as educational as they were breathtaking, providing a platform to showcase my work and exchange ideas. Another memorable experience was acting in the play "Chekhov Forever," directed by Ariya Hazievna, which deepened my connection with peers.

I am immensely grateful for the support of my friends and groupmates throughout these years. Dr. Grobler's guidance in the Mental Health and Well Being course was particularly invaluable for managing anxiety. I also extend my thanks to all CHE faculty members, especially my thesis supervisors—Professor Abdulkhakimova, Dr. Akishev, and Dr. Tleuov.

My family's support has been unwavering; my parents gave me the opportunity to study at this prestigious university, and my sisters were always there to assist. Not to be forgotten, my cat Jenov provided emotional comfort during those long hours of study.

Thank you to my incredible friends, including Aruzhan, Anisa, Jennet, Madina, Nastya, Milana, Zhamilya, Yana, and many others, for all the joyful and supportive moments we shared.

As I turn the page on this chapter, I carry with me not just knowledge, but invaluable experiences and friendships that will last a lifetime.

You've crafted an ideal plan for «successful success,» created a wish map, and envisioned your future on Time's cover, but somehow, things didn't go as planned. Perhaps I was too naive, or did you see a bit of yourself in that too? Five years ago, fresh out of high school, I envisioned myself solely as a local prosecutor or maybe even a judge. At 22, according to this plan, I was already supposed to earn my first million, find true love, and publish a couple of books. The current version of me smiles ironically, remembering this.

Though some dreams have yet to materialize, I can honestly say I'm content with where life has taken me. Far from home, in sunny Kazakhstan, I discovered something I never expected: genuine friendships, a supportive community, exceptional mentors, and perhaps, peace of mind. KIMEP became the place where I unearthed new facets of myself, gained fresh perspectives, and embraced who I am. Alongside personal growth, my time here honed my professional skills, sparked a fascination with diverse cultures, and broadened my worldview. Thanks to the international student body, I now know I have friends across the globe. Sometimes, reality surpasses Pinterest's imagery – our campus resembles an oasis, stunning beyond belief.

I could extol the virtues of KIMEP endlessly; my affection for it and its people knows no bounds. Yet, it's worth noting that my application to KIMEP was my 101st attempt to enrol in a foreign university. I ponder how different life would be had I given up at the 100th attempt, but truthfully, I'd rather not know. Every experience here has shaped me into who I am today, and for that, I'm eternally grateful. My message to you: never lose hope; let it be your guiding star and it will light up your future.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Student Government represents students' interests to the administration of KIMEP University. Since its establishment, the Student Government has been instrumental in advocating for student issues and concerns to the administration.

Every year, a new member of the Student Government Cabinet is elected. Members of the Student Government actively participate in the administration of KIMEP University by exercising voting rights on various university management committees such as the Tender Committee, Disciplinary Committee, and Budget Committee. As representatives of KIMEP students' interests, the Student Government is consulted for all significant management decisions at KIMEP University.

Dear Graduate Student,

We hope that this Yearbook will become a collection of great memories and moments, which will follow you during the next steps of your post-graduate life. During these four months, we had the enormous pleasure and only warm feelings after searching for all the photos, memories, references, and ideas, which we then put together into this beautiful puzzle.

We want to thank every graduate student who came for Photo sessions in 305, Valikhanov building, and sent their interesting quotes, which made us laugh and respect your wisdom and experience. We want to thank Dr. Barnett, Zhamila Pak and Korlan Akramova for managing our work from the beginning, doing proofreading, and helping with organizational work. Huge thanks to the Focus Group members and Nazerke Kassymkhan, we could not finish this project without you!

Lois Lowry, a beautiful American author, once wrote "The worst part of holding the memories is not the pain. It's the loneliness of it. Memories need to be shared." So, please, share all these memories, collected in this Yearbook 2024, with others and feel the beauty of this chapter of your life.

Your Yearbook Team: Dana Abdikhaliyeva, Kamilla Pavlikova, Aikumys Turlybi, Dinmukhamed Niyazov, Adil Kurmangaliyev, Adel Akzhanova, Aruzhan Amangeldy, Azat Kenin, Alikhan Nurgazinov, Kamila Arynkozy.

With huge love and respect
