KIMEP UNIVERSITY:
A JOURNEY TO GLOBAL OPPORTUNITIES

WHY KIMEP?

Diara Kabyl, Sophomore,
Majoring in Marketing

The community and campus life are what I love most about KIMEP. There's always something happening, whether it's events, student clubs, or opportunities to connect and grow. The energy here is inspiring, and it makes every day exciting and full of possibilities.

Amir Darkhanbayev, Junior,
Majoring in Jurisprudence

I chose KIMEP because it is the best university in Kazakhstan. Firstly, all professors here are well qualified and many of them came from abroad. Secondly, we have a choice of which courses we want to take and can freely create our schedule. Thirdly, KIMEP provides many opportunities to participate in exchanges and explore the world.

Renata Kuyanova, Sophomore,
Majoring in International Relations

There are lots of things that can be loved about our university: faculty, staff, educational requirements, schedules, etc. But most of all I love the freedom and community we have. The students that surround you are friendly and supportive, no matter what differences we have.

Elina Malkowskaja, Senior,
Majoring in Public Relations

Firstly, it's an opportunity to gain knowledge from leading local and international experts. Secondly, there is a vibrant student life with numerous organizations where you can make new friends, build connections, prove yourself, and develop skills that will be invaluable when applying for a job. Finally, it's a close-knit community that feels like a true family and will leave lasting memories.

Dana Ilyassova, Senior,
Majoring in Marketing

KIMEP students are very talented and ambitious, and many graduates become leaders in their field, so I wanted to become one of them.

As a KIMEP student, you'll be connected to a network of exceptional leaders and innovators across diverse industries – whether in government, such as a former Prime Minister and previous Chairman of the National Bank of Kazakhstan, or at top-tier international companies, like McKinsey, KPMG, PwC, Procter & Gamble, and Western Union, among others.

Your journey at KIMEP sets the foundation for long-term career success, offering you valuable connections and opportunities that will support you for life.

KIMEP Case Club

STUDENT-CENTERED ENVIRONMENT

KIMEP has a unique governance system where students actively participate in decision-making through an independent student government and are members of university committees. At KIMEP, students develop as leaders both inside and outside the classroom.

KELT (KIMEP English Language Theater) is one of KIMEP's oldest student organizations, founded in 2001, producing high-quality theater in English. KELT helps students discover their passion for the arts, enhance their creativity, and connect with a vibrant community.

Students can dive into the world of business and consulting before even beginning their careers. With the KIMEP Case Club, students solve real business challenges and develop their collaboration and leadership skills while connecting with other driven students.

Students from all majors can gain valuable storytelling and communication skills by joining The KIMEP Voice, which provides news coverage of campus life and Almaty, keeping the KIMEP community informed and engaged.

Students can fuel their athletic passion and team spirit through organizations like the KIMEP Football Team. KIMEP has eight sports teams and a variety of Physical Education courses that develop students' skills while fostering discipline, sportsmanship, and resilience.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT AND GRANTS

1 out of 4 KIMEP students receive scholarships and grants

KIMEP University, in collaboration with external sponsors, invests significantly each year in student financial support and scholarships, which includes tuition coverage, stipends, and support for dormitory accommodation.

Financial support is offered to both local and international students across our bachelor's, master's, and Ph.D. programs.

These opportunities are designed to reward academic excellence and recognize outstanding achievements, including extracurricular accomplishments. Financial support ensures support for a diverse student body and helps to ease the financial burden, allowing students to focus on their studies and personal growth.

For more information on scholarships and financial aid, visit our website or contact the Financial Aid Office.

KIMEP'S WORLD CLASS FACULTY

86% of faculty received degrees from Western educational institutions (including KIMEP University).

"KIMEP is a special place. I see KIMEP as an opportunity to serve a University with a compelling mission, to serve Kazakhstan, to serve Central Asia, and to serve the world. As a teacher, I impact the world by training our students to tackle the hardest problems. Because KIMEP students are the rare kind of students who are driven to take on those challenges, I view KIMEP as serving the global community."

Dr. Michael Blasie

Dean and Professor, School of Law
J.D., New York University, USA

"I have always respected how KIMEP equips students to tackle real-world challenges, and I wanted to contribute to an institution that shares my educational values. I was also attracted by KIMEP's diverse and dynamic academic community. The chance to work with students and faculty from various backgrounds was appealing, as it creates a collaborative environment where new ideas can thrive."

Dr. Aishabibi Dukenbayeva

Assistant Professor of Mathematics, School of Computer Science and Mathematics
Ph.D. in Mathematics, Ghent University, Belgium

"KIMEP equips students with modern up-to-date knowledge and skills that enable them to become highly qualified professionals who are able to synthesize theory and practice while solving analytical management problems."

Dr. Mira Nurmakhanova

Chair of Accounting & Finance Department and Professor,
Bang College of Business
Ph.D. in Economics, Iowa State University, USA

"What convinced me to join is the university's Western approach to education. There is a tutorial approach to teaching, lots of seminars organized on campus, and all of the classes are taught in English. Students, regardless of their citizenship, have a Western state of mind and duly enjoy participating in discussions in class."

Dr. Jimmy Teng

Associate Professor of Political Science, College of Social Sciences
Ph.D. in Political Science, Duke University, USA

"In all of my courses, I emphasize practical, transferable skills for academic and professional success. I also aim to supplement theory with practice; therefore, I would advise students to be eager to learn, apply, and collaborate."

Dr. Maganat Shegebayev

Chair of the Department of Education and Associate Professor,
College of Human Sciences and Education
Doctor of Business Administration, KIMEP University, Kazakhstan
