EXPLORE CENTRAL ASIA IN KAZAKHSTAN

MAGNIFICENT NATURE

Almaty is a city where you can experience all four seasons. The mountains surrounding the city are a wonderful place to go hiking and enjoy nature in the summer. In the winter, you can instead visit various ski resorts or go ice skating as the city becomes covered in snow. The many blue lakes, lush forests, red canyons and sandy dunes all around Almaty offer great sights and many opportunities to have a truly memorable time.

DIVERSE CUISINE

Almaty is a melting pot of cultures, and as such, visitors and locals alike face a multitude of options when it comes to enjoying culinary delights. From traditional Beshbarmak to laghman to pizza or burgers, Almaty will not leave any student wanting for delicious food. The many ethnic restaurants, including but not limited to Georgian, Chinese, Korean, Indian, Iranian and many others, are a treat for any gourmand. And, of course, all of these cafes and restaurants are a great place to hang out with the friends you will undoubtedly make here.

AMAZING HOSPITALITY

It is very easy to feel at home here for one reason alone: Kazakhs are a very hospitable and friendly people. Local students are always welcoming of visiting scholars, but even beyond the academic setting, it is easy to strike up a conversation with fellow hikers, engage in various activities with the locals and quickly find groups of people eager to show you around and make your stay here as enjoyable as possible.

TRAVEL OPPORTUNITIES

Almaty is uniquely positioned to offer great travel opportunities to visiting scholars. The neighboring countries of Russia, China, Kyrgyzstan and Uzbekistan can be accessed cheaply and easily, making exploration of new and exciting cultures all the more alluring. Students frequently use their free time during breaks and even weekends to visit other cities and countries in the region, such as Bishkek, the capital city of Kyrgyzstan, located only 170 miles away from Almaty. These travel opportunities will make your time in Kazakhstan even more unforgettable.
